The Alma Mater

On the banks of the old Oswego
Where Indian camp fires gleamed,
Now stands our Alma Mater,
True guardian of the stream.
Tho' our strength dwells ever with us
We never stronger seem,
Than when we are defending
Fulton's royal Red and Green.

Though it be on field or platform,
That our valor meets the test,
We are fighting for old Fulton,
And she bids us do our best.
Then with victory as our portion,
Our banners may be seen,
Waving high in glorious triumph,
Fulton's royal Red and Green.

In these halls of our ambition,
True loyalty we learn,
With courage to uphold it,
Ever steadfast, sure and firm;
So that when in life's broad vineyard,
Earth's fruits we seek to glean,
We shall always live to honor
Fulton's Royal Red and Green.

Mary E. Markham

A cheerful smile; a bit of sincere praise; a mild, calm, understanding manner; a clear insight into one's feelings; a passing mark in English. These are the things we shall remember.

In return, we, the Seniors of 1942, dedicate this issue of The Fultonian to its advisor, Mary E. Markham.

The Board of Education

The Board of Education is the body officially charged with the direction and control of the school system of the city. It establishes the financial, educational, and administrative policies of the schools, employs teachers, approves equipment, materials, and textbooks, operates and maintains the school buildings, and determines the amount of money annually needed to carry out its works.

It consists of seven members appointed by the mayor of the city for a term of five years each. Not over two members go out of office in any one year, so there is always a nucleus of experienced members to insure continuity of policies.

William LaLonde, Maurice Conley, G. R. Bodley, James E. Lanigan, William Hillick, Wade Bassett, William Caton.

Meet the Board of Education

Mr. F. Wade Bassett's advice to the seniors—"Just keep carrying on." He is interested in the welfare of the teachers, students and community at large. Motoring and baseball are his chief enjoyments.

An expert on birds, insects and plants, Mr. Bodley shares a garden with Mr. Black. He is a superintendent of Fulton schools, an advocate of mountain climbing, and an author of textbooks.

Mr. William Caton has been a member of the Board of Education for two years. He plays golf for pleasure and exercise.

Twenty years a member of the Board, Maurice Conley has several hobbies and is interested in sports, especially baseball.

Mr. Hillick, a favorite assembly speaker, is an excellent bridge player. We understand he'd hold his own in any barber-shop quartet.

William LaLonde has served on the board for about two years. He gardens in his spare time. Two of Uncle Sam's soldiers are Mr. LaLonde's sons.

Mr. Lanigan, now president of the board, has been a member three years. He enjoys public speaking, and people enjoy listening to him because of his lively sense of humor. He collects little pitchers with jolly faces on them. They are called Toby Jugs and come from England.

Mr. Price, who was not able to be present when the picture was taken, has been on the board since September. He is Production Manager at the Sealright Corporation.

OFFICERS

Wm. Abbott
Rachel Anderson

Roger N. Berry
Helen Angier

Miss O'Neill

Mr. Abbott, Mrs. O'Connor, Miss Anderson, Miss O'Connell, Miss Bump, Miss Otis, Mr. Wood, Miss Davidson, Miss O'Neill, Miss Preston, Mr. Berry, Miss Angier, Miss McGraw, Miss Johnston, Miss Markham, Miss Seymour, Mr. Otis, Miss Hague.

Conna Preston

Erna K. Hague

Miss Johnston, vice-principal of F. H. S., and head of the English department, advises students to work towards development of mind and spirit, true Americanism, and better preparation for post-graduation life.

Esther Johnston

Energy is the word for Miss Bonner. Everything from her English classes and reading to bowling, golfing, cooking, sewing, and piano playing occupies her time.

English students were amazed and proud to find that Miss Hague was a student pilot, flying towards her pilot's license. Aside from this exhilarating occupation, she likes to read and enjoy herself at her summer camp.

The second year English teacher, Rachel Anderson, advises Carpe Diem and the Poetry Club. A graduate of Ann Arbor, she was a student at Fulton High.

Mary E. Markham, third year English teacher, thinks advising the Yearbook Staff is fun. Her favorite sports are ski-joring and horseback riding. Her indoor avocation is reading. (She likes Irish setters.)

The Freshman and Sophomore English teacher, Miss O'Neill, enjoys movies and good books. She is also one of the faculty advisors for the Dramatics Club.

Mrs. O'Conner's chief interest is taking care of her two children, Meagan and Philip. She also likes to teach English and read non-fiction books.

SCIENCE

Chester Wood is our chemistry and physics teacher (also faculty advisor to the Science Club.) He likes photography and has a daughter and a son, Frances and Albert.

Advisor to the Young Inventors and Experimenters Club, Marcella Otis instructs her pupils thoroughly in general science and biology. Her favorite sports are shotgun shooting (tin cans) and basketball.

Roger Berry is the general science teacher who has prepared hundreds of freshmen for biology and physics, and chemistry. He likes photography and is advisor to the Freshman Science Club.

Faculty advisor for the senior class, Miss Preston says that her hobby is helping the seniors with their problems. (Some of them are mathematical.)

MATHEMATICS

Helen Angier, algebra and commercial arithmetic teacher, is interested in Junior Red Cross work, (advisor to the organization.) Nothing pleases her more than to start on an unplanned-for trip.

"In these times, just keep happy," comments Miss Bump (in her pleasing, low-pitched voice). And she follows her own advice by finding relaxation in playing the piano, sewing, and collecting curious rocks.

OFFICERS

Mr. Macdonald, our principal, specializes in golf and non-fiction books. His favorite radio programs are the quiz kind, like "Information, Please."

SPECIAL DEPARTMENTS

Our school librarian, Miss Jones, likes reading, of course. She also enjoys sleeping late in the morning. (Her favorites are the color black, and red roses.)

Mr. Wagner strives to have the F. H. S. orchestra "tops," plays the trombone, and in his few leisure moments gets a thrill from reeling in the "big ones."

Doralda Erb, from Pennsylvania, is a clever artist and designer. She is our art instructor and advisor to the Arts and Crafts Club. She enjoys horseback riding and swimming.

Miss Conners, easily identified by her merry laughter, is our oral English teacher and Dramatics Director. Coming to F. H. S. two years ago from Tupper Lake, she wears strange hats and has huge pocketbooks.

In line with Fulton's defense program, Mr. Rowland teaches auto mechanics to women. Besides this, he instructs students in shop work and loves to watch sporting events.

Ernest Black practices his agriculture teachings at home. He is a successful gardener, having raised vegetables, chickens, and three boys, David, Donald, and Roger.

Wood shop instructor, Mr. Frawley, is also the director of national vocational training in Fulton. The time he has left over from this defense work he uses in an enjoyable pastime (attending movies).

SOCIAL STUDIES

Wyman Pratt teaches social science and is the Student Council advisor. He is married, has two daughters, and enjoys puttering about his house as a handyman.

Mr. Cole's auto traveling has ceased for the duration, but he still enjoys building houses and gardening. Advisor to the Ski Club, he teaches economic geography.

John E. Horrocks, fond of red neckties, lectures precisely on social science. He is soccer coach and likes to scale mountains. (He has marched up nearly all the major mountains in New York State.)

ATHLETICS

Coach Anderson (boys' sports) is a leader of the Auxiliary Police, a member of the Rotary Club and American Legion, and owner and manager of Anderson's Bowling Alleys. He likes fishing and outdoor life.

Johnny Muscalino was captain and center for Fulton's greatest football team (1929). After having been graduated from Ithaca College, he became assistant boys' athletic coach here.

Girls' sports coach, Miss Edmunds, likes people and activities. She has signed up to sell War Bonds, and some day she will be able to continue her hobby of collecting dolls from foreign lands.

Mr. Anderson, Mr. Rowland, Mr. Rose, Mr. Muscalino, Mr. Wagner, Miss Jones, Mr. Frawley, Miss Brewer, Mr. Macdonald, Miss Edmunds, Mr. Black, Miss Erb, Mr. Bateman, Miss Sanders, Mr. Pratt, Mr. Cole, Mr. Horrocks.

OFFICERS

LANGUAGE

Miss Seymour instructs College-Entrance students in French and Latin. She likes to garden in her back yard and travel. (New York City is her favorite haunt.)

Between Latin classes and Carpe Diem meetings, Miss Wallace enjoys planting posies. She then sits by and knits, hoping to see them grow. (They seldom do.)

Miss Gorman, secretary to Mr. Macdonald, enjoys shopping, music, and her victory garden. Efficient and capable, she admires anyone who gives his best to everyday tasks.

COMMERCE

Miss McGraw, our commercial teacher, likes driving (cars) and reading. She is faculty advisor for the Commercial Club.

Miss Brewer, our office practice teacher, has special interests of collecting old coins, stamps, and visiting antique shops.

Miss Sanders uses speed in her knitting, ping pong, and typing. She collects book marks, takes New England trips, and likes to camp.

Avid about the nature hobbies of birds, insects, and plants, Miles Abbott teaches French and biology. He also likes photography and punny jokes.

HISTORY

Bob Otis teaches English, history, and economics. During his summer vacation he is a salesman for a seed company and tours New York, Vermont, and Pennsylvania. A graduate of Colgate, he is the debate coach for F. H. S.

One in a million, Miss Davidson doesn't mind gum chewing in class. In a concise voice, she teaches American history, and with nimble fingers she knits for the Red Cross.

Miss O'Connell, history teacher, mixes job with hobby as she travels to far away places. She likes to see new people and things and to see how others live in different situations.

The ideal hitch-hiker, pleasant and entertaining, is Mr. Rose, who likes to travel by his thumb. He teaches English and history, and delves deeply into his hobby of model sailing ships.

We'll Remember---

Johnny Zizzi for his adroit management of our senior meetings and for his ardent pleas of "more money."

"Smiley" Grant for his work on dance committees and for the calm way he had of getting things done.

"Sis" Parks for a picture of efficiency as she dashed off the minutes of the meeting. Her pencils were always short.

Jane Rogers for her juggling acts with numbers, checks, books, and money as she traveled in and out of Miss Preston's room. Finally she balanced the budget.

Announcement of Senior Activities

MAY 22

Senior Play

The Senior play, "Out of the Frying Pan," will be presented. Directed by Mary Connors with the aid of the student director, Catherine Mirabito, the play promises to be a hilarious success. The music will be given by the High School Orchestra and the scenery is being prepared by Lyman Wooster. There are 38 other students, besides those in the cast, who are working on the committees. For a scene from the play, see page 15.

MAY 27

Senior Banquet

Robert McKnight heads the chairmanship of the Senior Banquet. His assistants are Abajane Robinson, Irene Wilcox, Dudley Breed, and Jack Fegley. The banquet will be held in the Century House where Danny Grant will act as toastmaster. The speakers are Miss Markham, John Zizzi, and Frances Parks.

JUNE 12

Senior Class Day

Senior Class Day will feature an Assembly representing a U. S. O. Broadcast taking place at an Army camp, for the entertainment of the soldiers (the audience). The committee in charge is directed by Leon Durfey, and consists of Dawn Rodgers, Faith Fuller, Irene Wilcox, and Louis Gardner.

JUNE 21

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate service.
(The farewell sermon to the graduating class.)

JUNE 22

Commencement

The receiving of diplomas at commencement will end the high school careers of the Seniors.

The Student Council

Once again, under the able direction of its faculty advisor, Mr. Pratt, the Student Council has completed another successful year.

The members selected cheerleaders to pep up our football games, obtained buses for the students to attend the annual Fulton-Oswego gridiron battle, and sponsored two dances, The Freshman Frolic in the fall, and the Stag Dance in the spring.

In addition to providing records for noon-hour dancing in the gym, the Council appointed representatives from the student body to serve on the assembly committee, and presented two speakers, the Electrical Wizard Jones, who startled the assembly with amazing light experiments, and Mrs. Peasely, who came equipped with a number of birds, a monkey, and a talking parrot.

Sketches—

She brushed a little blue oil paint onto the face on the canvas to give it a realistic shadow, scrutinized carefully the detailed color blending in the eyes and stepped back to gaze happily at her completed oil painting.

The boy bit his lower lip nervously, as he glued the minute piece of balsa to the framework of his model airplane.

Her hands literally flew as she scooped out bits of clay with her fingertips. The little clay model seemed to take on some of the life that flowed from her fingers.

The string of elbow macaroni was transformed into a vivid Mexican bracelet as bright paints concealed the lowly character of the beads.

These are a few views of the Arts and Crafts at work (every second and fourth Tuesday). One can also see Miss Erb, Mr. Frawley, and Mr. Roland busily answering questions and giving advice.

The Victory Club

The Victory Club was organized this spring by Mr. Pratt's social studies classes. The executive committee, composed of Dorothy Wilcox, Marjorie Marlowe, Dick Johnson and Fred Volotta, drew up a constitution. The officers are Dorothy Wilcox, president; Fred Volotta, vice-president; and Millicent Lussier, secretary.

Each class selected a representative to form an advisory committee. Norma Adams, Jeannine Maybeck, Marjorie Marlowe, Dick Johnson, and Dorothy Wilcox are on this committee.

Each week a program concerning current events has been presented to promote more interest in social studies and world happenings.

ACTIVITIES

The Junior Red Cross

Following the pattern of unselfish work and cheerful sacrifice laid down by the Red Cross in this war torn world, the Junior Red Cross found its annual membership drive totaled 76 girls and boys. Following the advice of their leader, Miss Angier, they held parties for underprivileged children, a War Relief Drive was conducted in the school, and each girl made a project for the army hospitals. The members are also taking a home nursing course from Mrs. Harry Lehon.

Commentators Club

Startling news flashes and thrilling reports from a world war kept the Commentators spinning their globes and surveying their maps.

Amateur military strategy was displayed when eager students set their minds on the topic, "Mistakes in World War II." The officers who maintained order in the informal round-table discussions were Isabel Strother, president; Catherine Mirabito, vice-president, and Theresa Vant, secretary and treasurer. The faculty advisors are Miss Davidson, and Miss O'Connell.

Journalism Club Trains

The F. H. S. Journalism Club, parent organization of "The Buzz," is training thirty-five students for next year's staff. The group learns how to collect, report, and spread the news.

Meetings are held in Room 212 on Wednesday afternoons.

Smart Figures

The student body purchased 6,785 copies of "The Buzz." 900 April Fool issues were free. Approximately 72,000 words have been written, and 325 inches of ads were used to join merchant and student.

ACTIVITIES

The Orchestra

Seventh-bell pupils nodded their heads sleepily in tune with the music of the orchestra as the sound drifted up the halls from the auditorium and into the class rooms.

More brisk was the attitude of the students on Friday mornings as they marched into assembly while the orchestra put its rehearsals to good use by keeping everyone in step.

The strains of "The Star Spangled Banner" rendered the audience solemn as it sang the national anthem, and Horace Bullard's roll on the drum made the piece more military.

Mixed Chorus

Sopranos and tenors blend together to produce harmonious melodies as the Mixed Chorus hits the high and low notes.

On November 14, 1941, the Chorus and the Girls' Glee Club presented an "Assembly of Nations." Many of the leads in the operetta, "The Bells of Capistrano," were sung from the ranks of the Mixed Chorus.

Girls' Glee Club

On every Monday and Thursday thirty-five girls meet under the tutelage of Mr. Wagner to practice the art of singing. Their careful harmonizing produced melodious results in the "Assembly of Nations." Some of the girls wore colorful costumes native to the different countries while the others formed a background of folksong.

Poetry Club

Maybe Bucky Private will never take the place of Joyce Kilmer as a poet but he did have fun attending the many parties the Poetry Club held this year. Under the leadership of Miss Hague and Miss Anderson, the amateur poets let their imaginations run free to the rhythm of the iambic.

The club scrapbook grew by stanzas as each member offered literary creations. Mr. Macdonald was one of their guest speakers, and by studying and practicing the art of poetry, the club members added a new field to their cultivation of culture.

French Club

The meetings of Le Cercle Francais were called to order every second Tuesday of the month. Instead of having a regular meeting in December, a Christmas party was enjoyed by the members and songs were sung—in French. One of the outstanding meetings of the year featured the talk given by the State Supervisor of Foreign Languages.

The main purpose of having this club is to encourage the students to broaden their vocabulary and speak French more fluently.

The Debate Council

The debaters of Fulton High sharpened their wits and tongues on the resolution, "Every able-bodied male citizen in the United States should have one year of compulsory military training."

After disagreeing with Vocational High and Oswego teams, representatives from the Council attended the Student Congress at Syracuse on May 1. The delegates attending were Tom Bayley, Don Black, Tom Boylan, Louis Cardinali, Steve Gilles, and Jack Maxwell. Other active debaters are Mary Bevacqua, George Rogers and Nick Semararo.

The Twentieth Century Club

Members of Mr. Horrocks' social science classes banded together into "The Twentieth Century Club" in an effort to promote better American citizenship through debates, discussions and plays.

The club has been divided into four chapters, Upsilon, Delta, Sigma, and Omicron, each of which meets at different times to carry out their activities. The officers of each division act as a board of directors for the entire club with Pat Sullivan as chairman.

Carpe Diem

One, two, three, close! One, two, three, close! Novices carefully and mechanically tried out the fox trot as Carpe Diem went ahead at full speed. The business meetings, together with the dancing in the gym, helped to broaden the students' social experience and the members particularly enjoyed Mr. Walsh's speech, "My Life and Experiences at the University of Wisconsin." Another talk that stands out in our minds is that of Mr. Gallagher who acquainted us with "Life at Michigan State University."

Science Club

The red warning light flashed on and students rushed to put out the lights. A complete blackout was in effect and everybody began to grope his way to—no, not the air raid shelter, but the drawer in which the developing equipment was kept.

The Science Club was just preparing for another session with the enlarger, developer, and hypo. Each member was enjoying the thrill of developing a film or print.

Cheer Leaders

A long drawn-out cheer that ended in a "Fu—ul—ton" rolled across the field and half a minute later an answering yell came bouncing back from the opposing bleachers.

The F. H. S. cheerleaders almost doubled their efforts to submerge the enemy vocal hordes by jumping and shouting for more noise, no matter how unmelodious.

The best scheme for persuading the Fulton rooters to exert themselves was to divide the crowd into two sections, each trying to out-scream the other. It worked especially well in cheer leading assemblies. The balcony usually had the upper yell.

Polly Candee, Jimmy Challis, Jimmy Grim, Barbara Hickman, Ann Hollingsworth, Russell Kelly, Buddy Rodgers, Isabel Strothers, Helen Tracy, and Jack Walsh were the students who performed strenuous antics to heighten the morale of our football team.

Baseball

April 13—Our baseball team, trimming itself into shape under the coaching of John Muscalino began to look like a smooth, efficient, fighting force. Seasoned veterans from last year's varsity and J. V. teams limbered up their muscles in preparation for the coming battles.

Pitchers Louis Kimball, Jack O'Brien, and Ted Penkala thudded ball after ball into the catchers' mitts of Andrew Fisher and Ronald Lalik. The crack of bats against the horsehide sphere echoed the promise of high scores. It proved to be an echo without a source for the team lacked power at the plate. However, they made up for this by skill and speed in the outfield.

A duel with Central Square was scheduled for May 1, but the rain caused a postponement.

May 9—The F. H. S. team rode to Auburn to play the "Prison City Boys." The Auburn team hit seven of Jack O'Brien's pitches in the first four innings, establishing a lead at the start. Ted Penkala, replacing him in the fifth inning, allowed no hits for the remainder of the game and struck out five batters while he was pitching. The score at the end of the struggle was 4 to 3 in favor of Auburn.

1941 Football Season

September 13:

With eight seasoned veterans returning, the Fulton High School football team opened its offensive by playing the Alumni. The Grads force, outweighing the varsity in the backfield and on the line, defeated the challenger's team by a score of 7 to 0.

September 20:

"The Boys from Syracuse" (Onondaga Valley) retreated after being held scoreless by Fulton's first line of defense. Our scoring play came in the second quarter when Tracy, fading back to his own 30, passed to Cushman on Valley's 40, who sprinted the remaining distance for the touchdown. When the final gun sounded, F. H. S. was leading, 6 to 0.

October 4:

Garbed in red, white and blue, the previously unconquered Oneida team went down to defeat, 13 to 0, at the hands of our unbeaten, untied, and unscored-upon team.

October 11:

Fulton kept their enemy flying backwards when they "rolled out their heavy guns" against the luckless Cortland team and put them on K. P. Duty for the rest of the game. When the crowd poured through the gates of the park, Fulton was on the long end of a 27 to 0 score. Leading the team to victory were Tracy and Cushman, who scored 3 and 1 touchdowns, respectively.

October 18:

The Fulton fans, outscoring their Oswego rivals in attendance, witnessed a muddy, one-sided battle between the Blue and White and the Red and Green. The Powersmen, completely outwading F. H. S., scored an unearned touchdown and safety to win the game, 9 to 0. Featured in this game were vicious blocks and tackles, end runs, and exceptional punting, in spite of the rain during the game.

October 25:

Geneva, spending a furlough in Fulton, displayed a well-planned aerial attack against the F. H. S. varsity. With Carson and Corcoran featured in their strategy, they bombarded Fulton's "Bataan" with passes. Fulton retaliated with two touchdowns, by Cushman and Vescio, to make the final score read 27 to 13 in favor of Geneva.

November 1:

The F. H. S. team, with a fairly large group of followers, traveled to Utica to do battle with Utica Proctor. Utica drew first blood in the beginning quarter, only to have Fulton forge ahead, 7 to 6, in the next 15 minutes of play. Each team scored touchdowns in the third period and failed to convert the extra points. Fulton, unable to hold their 13 to 12 lead, yielded a Utica touchdown in the closing minutes of the game. The final score read Utica 19, Fulton 13.

The Reserves lost their two games, one to Oswego, 7 to 0, and the other to North Syracuse, 12 to 6.

Joe Cushman was our acting captain, but as the season ended, the players chose Neal Fitch to be the 1941 honorary captain of the team.

The following players were selected by Coach Anderson to start nearly all of the football games:

Ends	Ernest Valelunga and John Zizzi
Tackles	Donald Comstock and Ace Vescio
Guards	Tod Gillard and Kenneth Winters
Center	Mark Fruce
Backfield Men.....	Ronald Lalik, Eugene Tracy, Neal Fitch, Joe Cushman and John Johnson.

Kneeling—Richard Marshall, Walter Krupa, Thomas Hughes, Ronald Lalik.
Standing—John Muscalino, coach; Peter Zanewych, John Zizzi, Frank Moore, Mark Fruce.

Basketball Season of 1941-1942

The 1941-'42 F. H. S. basketball squad ranked in spirit with the U. S. fighting forces, but veterans were lacking.

Central Square, prying off the lid of the season, defeated the local boys, 27-24. Vescio and Kush were high scorers for Fulton with 6 and 5 points respectively.

The second game found Fulton still attempting to gain some numbers in the win column as Oswego triumphed, 33-19.

The third and fourth games found Fulton making a strong comeback as they "shelled" Auburn and Mexico with baskets to the scores of 24-18 and 42-19 respectively. Nick Kush scored 23 points in these two games.

At Auburn the Red and Greens' winning streak was broken as the "Prison City" boys came out on top, 29-23. Hughes was high for Fulton with 7 points.

The sixth and seventh games were both played away from home, Fulton traveling to Carthage, lost on the long end of a 43 to 15 score. Altmar felt defeat at the hands of our boys by a 34 to 18 win. Hughes and Krupa both shared honors for high scoring in this game by getting 10 and 9 points respectively.

The next game Fulton continued its winning streak by bombarding Mexico, 42 to 25. Kush was high scorer for the F. H. S., making 18 points of the 42.

Too much confidence caused the Red and Green to lose to North Syracuse, 38 to 24. Taking revenge on Altmar for their last defeat, Fulton won, 46 to 29. Kush and Valelunga totaled high for Fulton by sinking six and four baskets respectively.

Remaining home for the next engagement, the Fulton audience saw Central Square take a licking at the hands of our boys. When the game was finished Central Square went home defeated, 33 to 27.

The last two remaining games of the season were played against Oswego (where Fulton dropped a hard fought game, 46 to 22) and the last game was played at Carthage, where the Red and Green varsity lost by a score of 35 to 29.

At the end of the season when the total number of games were added together. Fulton had won four and lost eight of the twelve contests decided.

The varsity players were: Walter Krupa, Nick Kush, "Ace" Vescio, Ernest Valelunga, Bob Hughes, Frank Moore, Ronald Lalik, Peter Zanewych, John Zizzi, Dick Marshall.

Ski Club

Something new has been added to both the Army and Fulton High School. Skiing enthusiasts decided that their sport was too much fun to be enjoyed alone, so they organized the Ski Club in the fall of 1941. The meetings were held each Wednesday after school during the winter season under the guidance of Mr. Cole.

Four meets were held with Jack Wilcox and Rawlins Hickman finishing first in two of the races. (Held at the golf course).

An attractively designed emblem was presented to each member at the end of the season. By forming patrols, competition between groups as well as individuals was supplied.

Standing—Alfred Simons, Mark Fruce, Raymond Davis, Cylus Smith, Coach Wymann Pratt, Joseph Menard, Raymond Goodrowe, Erwin Sieron, Floyd Austin, George Haig.

Track Team

Due to Coach Batemans' illness this spring, the team was a bit late in forming. Mr. Pratt took over and molded the boys into shape for the coming contests.

With last year's veterans, Walsh, Porter, Hickman, Holt, Austin, Ingells, and Swizerick, the team numbers 19.

After school, during May, they could be seen practicing pole vaulting, jumping, and shotputs behind the school, while across the street in the park, runners could be seen practicing starts and dashes.

Cross Country

As compared with previous years, Fulton had an exceptional team this year. They won half their meets. Fulton beat Oswego, 21 to 34, while at the Syracuse sectionals there were 75 runners and Fulton's best man came in 32nd.

A summary of the contests shows that the Fulton racers beat Oswego and Onondaga Valley and lost to Solvay and Geneva.

The coach is Earl W. Bateman and the runners were Jack Walsh, Bruce Porter, Floyd Austin, Frank Chetney, Ralph Lafratt, Pat Lafratt, and Joe Menard.

MANEUVERS

Kneeling—George Todd, Leland Salsbury, Harley Arnold, Joe Judd, William Bidwell, Leon Durfey, Richard Stratton, Stanley Curtis, Harold Blake.

Soccer

Under the able direction of John E. Horrocks, a member of the faculty, the soccer team enjoyed its most successful season in the five years that it has been played at Fulton High School.

After cutting the squad from approximately 45 to 25 players, Coach Horrocks picked out his 11 starters against St. John's, 1940 Parochial League Champs of Syracuse. Paced by Clyde Grim, who scored two goals, the opener was won by the Red and Green, 3 to 2.

Altmar lost two games, 6 to 0 and 10 to 0, under the onslaught of our team. Against Central Square, we split two decisions, losing the first, 2 to 6, and winning the second, 6 to 0. Using all their skill and power, the Fulton boys crushed Warners by the almost identical scores of 8 to 0 and 9 to 0.

Capitalizing on penalty shots, the Phoenix team defeated Fulton in their first encounter, 5 to 4. In the second clash they outplayed our boys, 10 to 0.

Trying to find a winning strategy, the Red and Green lost their first battle to Parish, 4 to 0, but won the second encounter, 4 to 2.

After our team lost two hard-fought games to Camden by the scores of 6 to 2 and 2 to 0, Fulton's chances of winning the Oswego County Championship were demolished.

Displaying their best form of the season, the Red and Green warriors scored 14 to 2 and 8 to 2 wins over Williamstown, thus ending their 1941 season with a triumph.

In a total of 15 games F. H. S. piled up 83 points against 43 scored by their opponents. Russell Kelly, Leon Durfey, and Harold Blake chalked up 590 minutes of wide-awake soccer by playing in every game.

The following fellows were picked by Coach to play in most of the games.

Goalie	Leon Durfey
Fullbacks	Bob Smith, Harold Blake
Halfbacks	Russell Kelly, Dan Gleba, Steve Gilles, Henry Nadeau
Outside Forwards	Joe Judd, Stanley Curtis
Inside Forwards	Silvio Cardinali, Lewis Kimball
Center	Clyde Grim

Kneeling—Shirley Peacock, Alice Murphy, Richard Nettles, Richard Chalifoux.
Standing—Vivian Hartranft, captain; Jean Hallenbeck, Joan Nellis, Richard McGivney, William Bidwell, Philip Bolton.

Bowling

The bowling alleys resounded with the noise of a barrage of heavy artillery as the rumble and crash of balls signified that new points were being added to the scores of Bidwell, Hundick, McGivney, Nettles, and Trepasso, ace "keglers" of Fulton High. The team entered the high school tournament held at Fulton and rolled in third.

Richard McGivney	171 average
Bill Bidwell	170 average
Peter Hundick	167 average
Dick Nettle	166 average
Ronnie Trepasso	165 average

From the girl enthusiasts Shirley Peacock was drafted to manage the A league while Vivian Hartranft and Pat Burnet commanded the B league. The victorious team, which bowed to defeat only twice, included: Vivian Hartranft, captain; Shirley Peacock, Alice Murphy, Jean Hallenbeck, and Joan Nellis.

Ping Pong

The Fuchs sisters remained undefeated this year in the girls' tournament and they also defeated the Oswego girls "hands down."

After successive eliminations at the noon hour boys' and girls' tournament, Christine Fuchs appeared the winner with Johanna Fuchs as runner-up.

The play-off of the boys' tournament found Robert Bower in first place; Robert Macdonald, second; Joe Di Bartello, third; and Fred Revette, fourth.

Basketball

The girls "kept 'em flying" in basketball this last season.

The senior group, captained by Jean Fanning, bombarded all would-be rivals and successfully captured their objective, first place. Members of her victorious squad include Manager Johanna Fuchs, Rosemary and Christina Fuchs, Theresa Vant, Alice Murphy, Adele Brewer, and Dorothea Jacobs.

An official communique from Miss Edmunds states that these aces have six victories and no defeats to their credit.

Girls' Noon Hour

Girls' noon hour activities came through with top honors again this year under the able leadership of Captains Jane Rogers and Isabel Strother. Over 25 rookies volunteered for active service and after being put through intensive drill by the officers, engaged in the following maneuvers: softball, volleyball, newcomb, basketball, badminton and ping-pong.

Volleyball

Like a shell from a mortar, the volleyball shot over the net and just as swiftly sailed back again. The girls who so energetically kept the ball on their opponents' side, were captained by "Sis" Parks and had a hard struggle wresting the championship from Julia Tetro's team, which finished second.

The winners included Adele Brewer, Emilia Cardinali, Jean Fanning, Blanche Gillespie, Alice Murphy, and Isabelle Strothers.

When the battle was decided, members of both the first and second placers won an overwhelming victory against Oswego.

Hockey

Brandishing hockey sticks, the Senior Amazons began to wage war on their sophomore sisters and the poor puck. The sophs had staged a surprise attack but failed to capture championship honors in the final fight, which took place on a cold and dreary afternoon. (Several girls wore mittens). Captain Naomi Laughrey, with the aid of Rosemarie Fuchs, Julia and Pearl Tetro, June Yager, Alice Murphy, Adele Brewer, Alice Townsend, Mary St. Phillips, Edith Dodge, Dorothea Jacobs, and Jennie Cherniak, led her team to a hard won victory. The enemy sophs, placing second, were commanded by Laura Gillespie and managed by Lillie Mae Hague.

Second Row—Edith Dodge, Jennie Cherniak, June Yager, Dorothea Jacobs, Alice Murphy, Adele Brewer, Alice Townsend.

MANEUVERS

Softball

Miss Edmunds officially states that we have nine outstanding captains, each trying to lead her respective squad to victory. A further announcement declares that the commanders are: Barbara Broadwell, Pearl Tetro, Theresa Vant, Mary Lou Anderson, Audrey Gifford, Mary Garrett, Gloria Guile, Marjory Marlowe, and Ethel Larrabee.

First Row—Pearl Tetro, Mary Lou Anderson, Audrey Gifford, Betty Blake.

Second Row—Barbara Broadwell, Theresa Vant, Gloria Guile, Ethel Larrabee, Marjorie Marlowe.

Hiking

"Tramp, tramp, tramp"—the girls were marching. To keep step with the times, forty-five of our F. H. S. girls (a skeleton company) drilled after school every Wednesday last fall. Under the commands of their leaders, Irene Lamb and Colleen Lussier, they double-timed out to their favorite destinations, which were scattered all about Fulton's boundary lines. The hikers thought they were being sabotaged on one occasion—a friendly little snake was only trying to strike up an acquaintance.

Senior and Junior Letter Girls

The senior and junior girls have been awarded the letter "F" for their participation and cooperation in a variety of seasonal sports.

The participants include the following: Pearl Tetro, Julie Tetro, Christine Fuchs, Johanna Fuchs, Alice Murphy, Adele Brewer, Frances Parks, Virginia Vant, Betty Ives, Jennie Cherniak, Rosemarie Fuchs, Ann Pontante, Shirley Sanford, Isabel Strother, Blanche Gillespie, Catherine Czeriak, Jane Rogers, Edith Dodge, Naomi Laughrey, Rose Gamble.

Badminton

The badminton season ended with "Sis" Parks as the champion of the seniors, Anna Hudyma of juniors, Laura Gillespie of the sophomores, and Patricia Nissen of the freshmen. Many of the participants, after an exhausting battle, were dropped from the tournament when two games were lost. "Sis" Parks became the girls' champion by defeating the various class winners.
